THINK ABOUT Names

Identifying Domain-Specific Words

► Read the passage to a partner. Draw the name cartoons.

¹ Do you like your name? Is your name easy to remember? Does your name have a meaning? Is your name unique or unusual, or is it a popular name? What country did your name come from?

² Babies are usually given a name by their parents. Some parents give their children popular names that many children have. Other parents give their children unusual or unique names. Many popular and unique names have special meanings.

³ Names come from many countries. Some names have special meanings. The Spanish name Linda means beautiful. The British name Wyatt means strong. The Scottish name Cameron means crooked nose. How would you like to be named crooked nose? If you want to find out what your name means and what country it comes from, you can go online to the website www.behindthename.com.
